- The Sanhedrin wishes to discredit Jesus
- They have agents ask a question that would either discredit Him in the eyes of the people or get him in trouble with Rome
- Jesus' answer confounds them and He escapes their trap

The parable of the vine-growers was a rebuke to the Sanhedrin

■ Luke 20:19

And the scribes and the chief priests tried to lay hands on Him that very hour, and they feared the people; for they understood that He spoke this parable against them.

The Sanhedrin has bad motives Luke 20:20 So they watched Him, and sent spies who pretended to be righteous, in order that they might catch Him in some statement, so that they could deliver Him to the rule and the authority of the governor.
They use insincere flattery Luke 20:21 They questioned Him, saying, "Teacher, we know that You speak and teach correctly, and You are not partial to any, but teach the way of God in truth."
A trick question Luke 20:22 Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?

They Jewish leadership is crafty Luke 20:23, 24 But He detected their trickery and said to them, "Show Me a denarius. Whose likeness and inscription does it have?" They said, "Caesar's." Jesus confounds His enemies Luke 20:25 And He said to them, "Then render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." Jesus' brilliant answer silences them Luke 20:26 And they were unable to catch Him in a saying in the presence of the people; and being amazed at His answer, they became silent.
